We renew a Herald tradition this week with the annual Christmas edition of your 99-year-old county seat newspaper.

And fun it was to gather the hundreds of Santa Letters from kids throughout North Milam County. Of course we read some of Santa's mail (with his permission) before putting them in printed form.

Santa was deeply impressed (and somewhat amazed) by some of the letters.

One lad had the audacity to ask if anyone had seen Ol' St. Nick last year. He also wondered if it's cold at the North Pole.

99-99-99-99

Another youngster expressed his desires and hoped that Santa's reindeer were ready for Christmas while still another lad wished that his daddy would receive $1,000. I appended a post script on that request and noted that $1,000 cash presents would be readily accepted at 108 E. First St. (that's The Herald).

An interesting thing about many of the letters from these youngsters is that many of the boys want Cape Canaveral rocket sets and similar jet-age toys.

Most of the letters stated matter of factly the needs and hopes for Milam's youngsters on Christmas morning. Many of them expressed hopes for good Christmases for other children too.

99-99-99-99

Some readers might wonder why we turn our pages into "Santaland" each Christmas. We feel there are two fundamentals in Christmas—giving and receiving. Cameron ministers tell us about the giving. And our youngsters make receiving a joy to the giver.

So we develop this dual theme for Christmas week, remembering, but holding our regular fare of general news.

If, after reading some of these letters and sermonettes, you don't agree, we'll gladly refund you the price of this newspaper, 5 cents, and wish you a Merry Christmas.

One Cameron pastor this week expressed concern over the shooting of fire crackers at Christmas-tide.

The Rev. Walter Grimes, pastor of the First Christian Church, wonders if it is Christmas like to explode fireworks this particular time of the year.

"Are we celebrating a revolution or something," Rev. Grimes says. "I thought the Christmas spirit was something peaceful and worthy of quiet appreciation of its true meaning. Fireworks are all right on the Fourth of July or New Year's Day, but Christmas, that's a different, more wonderful story."

99-99-99-99

By the way, don't let your youngsters forget the pre-Christmas Car-nouns Wednesday afternoon, December 24, starting at 1:30. A second showing will begin about 3:15. And Santa will be there to see if he missed any letters. It's all free. Hope your children will be there.

We hope you enjoy your Christmas with family and friends. Ninety-nine wishes each of you a Merry Christmas.

US 79 Stretch Set For Reconstruction

A contract for 7.1 miles of construction on U.S. Highway 79 in Milam County has been awarded to a San Antonio firm, it was announced in Austin this week by the State Highway Commission.

Perry Construction Co. submitted the low bid of $227,725.93 on the project. Construction of construct and surface shoulders, asphaltic concrete pavement and widen small structures, located from Rocky Creek to Rockdale is expected to take 150 working days, according to C. B. Thames, District Highway Engineer at Bryan. The awarding of the contract to this firm is subject to the concurrence of the Bureau of Public Roads.

Carol D. Zeigler, Resident Engineer at Hearne will be in active charge of the project while under construction.

H. G. Cooper Retires From Postal Service

A 33-year veteran postal employee will retire from the Cameron Postoffice staff January 1. Postmaster John M. Hays announced today.

He is civic leader H. G. Cooper, 805 N. Central who has served as a postal clerk in Cameron since April, 1925.

But Cooper will be going into an active retirement schedule that he has developed in 30 years of civic and church service here.

Originally from Maysfield, he will take care of his cattle on his farm near that town in Milam County northeast of Cameron.

"I started my postal service when Mrs. W. T. Hefley, Sr., was postmaster in Cameron," Cooper recalls. "It doesn't seem so long ago. You might say time has passed quickly."

Chamber Plans Major Campaign For Membership

The Cameron Chamber of Commerce membership and finance campaign will get underway the day after Christmas, according to an announcement by James M. Wiggs, committee chairman.

Approximately 50 Chamber members will meet in the District Court Room at the Court House at 4 p.m. Friday, December 26, to receive instructions, campaign material and membership prospect cards. They will be paired off to form 24 teams, to be divided into two divisions.

Members of the Chamber board of directors will act as team captains. They are: William F. Arthur, George Bowman, Charlie M. Burke, N. L. Caperton, Earl Curtis, John Davis, Gus Elley, Morris Epley, Leo L. Fuchs, O. B. Harden, Don G. Humble, Wiley W. Loughmiller, Frank Luecke, A. W. McCullin, Louis M. McKee, Drayton McLane, A. Earle Pearson, Jack W. Prescott, S. H. Richardson, Milton J. Schiller, Henry Siebman, Hilliard S. Thomas, O. A. White and Lester Williams.

The effort is designed to double both the financial and personal support of the Chamber of Commerce for an enlarged Chamber program.

Cooper began his postal career as a substitute clerk and became regular clerk in 1936.

He can recall many a letter handled and untold dollars he has sent on their way through the mail. Cooper served as money order clerk at the Cameron Postoffice

FHA Christmas Program Draws Parents, Guests

The FHA Christmas program was held December 15, in the Yoe High homemaking department with parents, graduate FHA girls and 20 members attending.

Freshmen homemaking girls were in charge of both the program and the refreshments for the meeting. Sandra Miller presided with Sandra Baskin assisting as program chairman.

Mary F. Lesikar, chapter president, was in charge of organization business. Committee reports were given by Sharon Wise, Pat Nesbit, and Patsy Talafuse. Reporting on the district meeting were Pat Thompson, Geri Kolojecak, June Weems, Pat Nesbit, Barbara Juneck and Beverly King.

The devotional with Margie Wise as father, Gwen Zawadzke as mother, Geraldine Miller as the child and Norma Rummel as the teen age daughter, carried the family together theme.

Many college students have returned home to spend the holidays with relatives and friends. Some will be back for the first time since September with stories of new friends and experiences.

Baylor University has been the home away from home for quite a few Camerontonites including: DON HOWARD, JEFF BURKES, BARBARA MACON, PEGGY HIGHTOWER, CINDY CURTIS, GENE HILLMAN, BETSY VOGELANG, JOYCE EDMONDS, TOM COLLINS, JOHN CARROL RUSSELL, JEAN BRADBURY, AND WILMA BALDRIDGE.

H. G. COOPER

for the past 10 years.

Active in church life, Cooper has served in many departments of the First Baptist Church, Cameron, in the last 30 years.

Among his many church posts, he has been a deacon for 30 years and taught Young Married Couples Bible class for about 10 years. He has served his church as treasurer.

He still finds time to be an active member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge and the American Legion. He is a veteran of World War I.

Serves Other Boards
In past service, he was a member of the Selective Service Board during World War II and of the civic service board at the Postoffice.

He and Mrs. Cooper live quietly at their home at 805 N. Central. They have one son, Bill Cooper, Houston, and three grandchildren.

What are his immediate plans? "To be in Houston with our children for Christmas," was his reply. "We'll have more time for visits now."

State To Spend $43,000 On Milam County Roadways

The Texas Highway Department will spend $43,000 for improvements on highways in Milam County during 1959. D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, has announced. This is in addition to the regular construction and maintenance program.

US 77 - Paint Little River Bridge South of Cameron;

US 77 - Recondition 1.0 mile and level up 1.0 mile - Between Falls County Line and Cameron (Sections);

US 190 - Level up 0.5 mile - from Brazos River Bridge West

The State Highway Commission has approved this appropriation to improve already existing highways in this county, and there will be little or no additional right of way requirements, Greer said. The funds will be spent for shoulder widening, seal coat jobs, additional surfacing and for widening of structures and highways in these counties.

"We should have this program moving by spring," Greer said. "We believe the money will go a long way toward bringing these highways up to date."

C. B. Thames, District Engineer of the Bryan District, announced that the following projects in this county will be scheduled for improvement during 1959.

Police Advise Safe Driving Over Holiday

Cameron and Milam County Tuesday anticipated a quiet Christmas 1958.

The long holiday period from Christmas through New Year's brought safe - driving warnings from local and state highway authorities.

Police Chief Chester Simons cautioned Cameron holiday drivers to "watch out for the other man behind the wheel."

"And don't let too much holiday cheer get you down," he advised Cameron drivers.

GIFT OF LIFE

Elsewhere, state highway patrol officials asked that Cen-Texas and state drivers give a "gift of life" this Christmas.

State officials had predicted 180 persons would die in holiday accidents over Christmas-New Year's.

Christmas Day was to be quiet in Cameron where several churches set Christmas Eve services Wednesday night. St. Monica's Catholic Church was to hold Christmas Midnight Mass Wednesday night. (See related stories on inside pages.)

The Jaycee Santa Pal project was climaxed Tuesday with the distribution of hundreds of toys, including bicycles, dolls and scooters to about 200 underprivileged youngsters in the Cameron area. Christmas weather forecast was for partly cloudy and mild temperatures in the 50's through the weekend.

Businesses Close

Businesses were closed throughout Cameron Christmas Day following a bustle of last-minute shopping here. Stores will reopen Friday morning at regular times.

School was dismissed Friday for the two-week holiday period. Many Milam County youngsters planned to attend the free Christmas Car-nival showing at the Milam Theatre at 1:15 and 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 24.

Joy Still To Be Found Christ Brought Gift In Heavenly Message Of Individual Peace

By Rev. Loyd Burleson
"But when the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth His Son," Galatians 4:4.

Most things of importance are accomplished usually through careful planning and preparation. Before huge buildings are erected, they are first erected in the minds of men who plan and design the work. If these plans are carried out, soon the finished work appears.

The greatest of all the planners, the Lord God, made definite plans and preparation for the human race. Even before the foundation of the world was laid, there was in the mind of God a plan for redeeming every individual who would be born into the world. Knowing that man would rebel against Him, God made preparation to sacrifice His best in order to reclaim lost men. After years of preparation through nations and individuals God sent forth His Son. The birth of Christ came therefore not by accident but just the time God had planned.

This event, the birth of our Savior we call Christmas. It came when the time was right.

Today the time is right for a reevaluation of our God and Savior. The world into which Jesus was born was a sin sick world. Pagan religion could offer no help or comfort for bewildered souls.

It is little wonder then that the Angel's good tidings of great joy was so well received by the Shepherds. We too need to turn from our false gods, which permit unrestrained sin and degradation and Hell itself to the Savior who is Holy and who calls us to a high and Holy life. If we are tired of our false shrines and our meaningless lives, we too will find joy in the message from Heaven. Then ethics of the dust must give way to the ethics of Heaven and Satan will give way to Christ. A meaningful Christmas awaits all who find in the Saviour's birth a Pearl worth all.

By The Rev. Alfred Kallus
Asst. Pastor, St. Monica's Church
"Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth among men of good will." (Luke 2:14) Thus the angels sang on the first Christmas some 1958 years ago. They were heralding the newborn Savior, the Prince of Peace. For prophecies referred to Him as the Prince of Peace before His birth and He has been called that since.

Yet, the fact is that there was no peace in the world before He came and there has been little or no peace since.

The peace that Jesus Christ brought into this world was peace for the individual. For when the individual is at peace with himself and God, and each of his neighbors is likewise in every community there will be peace in the community. For with peace in every community, there will be peace in the nation. And if each nation is at peace, there is peace in the world. World peace therefore begins with the individual.

Peace of soul is had only in accepting Jesus Christ as the Son of God and obeying His commands. He has commanded us strictly to love God and to love neighbor. God is everywhere and therefore must be loved at all times; our neighbor is also found everywhere and must likewise be loved. Our neighbor is of various creeds, nationalities and racial colors, and until we love his as Christ commanded, we cannot begin to be at peace with ourselves. And if we are not first at peace with ourselves, we cannot expect peace in our community, much less in the world.

Trinity Lutheran To Have Services Christmas Eve

"It is our hope," the pastor stated, "that the people of Cameron will join us in this observance of the Birthday of our Savior King. It is for that reason that we extend this cordial invitation to the community to worship with us on Christmas Eve."

Christmas Day Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

Christmas Relieves Loneliness Of Us All

by the Rev. D. C. James

Memory and love rise to combat the loneliness in each of us at Christmas more than at any other season. The church appeals to us to recall what happened on the first Christmas, which was the supreme act of divine love. The family beckons us to recollect how dear and precious are the human ties of love. The following words from the pen of Mr. Dickens, a friend of many of us, should be read twice, first, as referring to the role of human love in Christmas and, second, as referring to the role of divine love in Christmas:

"Numerous, indeed, are the hearts to which Christmas brings a brief season of happiness and enjoyment. How many families whose members have been dispersed and scattered far and wide, in the restless struggle of life, are then reunited, and meet once again that happy state of companionship and good-will, which is a source of such pure and unalloyed delight, and one so incompatible with the cares and sorrows of the world How many old recollections and how many dormant sympathies Christmas-time awakens!

We write these words, now many miles distant from the spot at which, year after year, we met on that day, a merry and joyous circle. Many of the hearts that throbbed so gaily then, have ceased to beat; many of the looks that shone so brightly, then, have ceased to glow; the hands we grasped, have grown cold; the eyes we sought have hid their luster in the grave; and yet the old house, the room, the merry voices, and smiling faces, the jest, the laugh, the most minute and trivial circumstances connected with those happy meetings, crowd upon our mind at each recurrence of the season, as if the last assemblage had been but yesterday. Happy, happy, Christmas, that can win us back to the delusions of our childish days, recall to the old man the pleasures of his youth, and transport the traveler back to his own fireside and quiet home!"

That wonderfully welcome fireside might be in a home in Cameron or in St. Louis; it might also be interpreted as being what Christ called "the bosom of the Father."

Greetings

Like jolly old Santa himself, we're full of good wishes for one and all for a holiday season that will long be remembered for its good cheer and happiness.

Peace On Earth Is Goal Through Years

By Walter Grimes
Minister, Christian Church
Last week, the Associated Press carried a news story by Marvin L. Arrowsmith, White House correspondent for the AP. In the story, Mr. Arrowsmith asserted that a world peace, enduring and just, "still is President Eisenhower's No. 1 goal and overriding interest after six years in office."

Last Saturday, the President's Christmas Message was successfully transmitted from a man-made satellite orbiting around the world once each ninety minutes. The message was a simple one. "Through this unique means I convey to you and all mankind America's wish for peace on earth and good will toward men everywhere."

This writer cannot help but contrast this with the Angelic Chorus that heralded the coming of the Christ Child almost 2,000 years ago.

During those years, it has been the dream and work of many important men and women to achieve a world peace, enduring and just, and yet, even after 1900 years of the Christian influence, the world is far from peace. Our news services constantly carry stories of attack and counter attack, charges and counter charges, not only on the world and international level, but here at home, as well. Even our churches are not exempt from struggling against one another.

Of equally serious importance is the lack of inward peace and stability among our own generation. Like Martha, in the New Testament, "we are troubled about many things." There is no way of telling just how many people appear before ministers, priests, doctors, psychiatrists, and lawyers every day seeking help with a particular problem that torments their souls; and how many more try to work out their own problems.

At the time when the Angels appeared, there was not a world war going on. Rome had succeeded in conquering most of the known world. Yet the Angels appeared to the shepherds in the field. After assuring them there was nothing to fear, and announcing the birth of Jesus, we read, "And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill among men.'"

Let me suggest to you the priority in the proclamation if you would find peace. "Glory to God in the highest"! Peace among men is the climax of life's great hope, but it is not the beginning. The beginning is the adoration of God himself. Our bettermen cannot come from human schemes; it must come from God.

This Christmas, may you again come to the manger and find the Christ Child, and fall down and worship him, and give yourself to him, that there may be peace.

"Gory to God in the highest, and on earth—peace! So let it be."

"And there, were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them." Across the ages the story of Christmas lives on eternally. Let us all rejoice in its glorious promise of peace and enduring good will.

Christmas First, Last

By The Rev. Aubrey F. Russell
Pastor, First Baptist Church

The people were busy that first Christmas. Economically the common people were finding great difficulty in eeking out a scanty existence. Did they not follow Christ for the bread Politically the undercurrents of unrest were deep. Did they not have in jail those who had led insurrections The Roman heel was hard to endure. Religiously, the formal, ritualistic repetition of assigned duties were devoid of real heart and life. Did not John The Baptist and Christ call for repentance The people went away empty hearted from their places of worship.

Yes they knew the prophecies concerning the Messiah But they had waited so long. How could they expect to go on living expectantly in the face of the long centuries of the silence of God.

They were driven by the unrelenting forces of circumstances to concern themselves with practical affairs. There was no time for other things. Time had been preempted by concern for the immediacy. No wonder "there was no room for Him in the Inn". This was not because they deliberately planned to shut Him out when He came, not because they were disinterested in religion but simply because each one was preoccupied with personal affairs interest and needs.

Is this not the ever present problem?

Time at Christmas as well as at other times is preempted for necessary (?) things and there simply is no time left for Christ.

Does this strike a responsive note? Are you rushed for time? Do you have time and room for Him at His birthday? Is the center of your interest in these days Christ or is it on practical affairs? Are your gifts given in His name or are you paying last years debt or trying to buy yourself a friend?

Is Christ still being shoved aside and out in your life or home? When will Christmas be returned to Him whose birthday it is?

Don't you know they wish they had made room for Christ?

There is time now to invite Jesus Christ into your heart and home for this Christmas.

DEAR SANTA — Within this section are hundreds of Dear Santa letters telling the genial gent from the North Pole just what better be in the Christmas stockings or under the tree Christmas Day. Youngsters like this young lad have great faith in Santa's reliability and had greater fun writing him their Christmas wishes. The Herald is sure ol' St. Nick will do his best to comply with their wishes.

Rev. Cobb Writes . . .

Christmas Story Is Gift From God

By The Rev. Gerald R. Cobb
Pastor, United E&R Church
Ben Arnold

Shadows lay across Jerusalem and down the sky to Bethlehem. The Jordan no longer sparkled nor did the sun touch Galilean waters with flecked light.

For in people's hearts the fire of hope was banked with thoughts of utter despair and lack of living purpose. A donkey carrying an unwed expectant Mother was symbolic of this futility as it ambled along with the cheerless procession of Jews moving in obedience to the Toamn taxation decree.

For this Jewish girl at the end of day the inn had no room. Rather she was given as a nest, the cow's manger. From here the hurt pain stole out to the rolling hills overlooking the Dead Sea; there shepherds shivering in the cold pulled tattered shawls tighter about their gaunt bodies. thus, sunset only darkened the gloom into black night. But far to the West wise men stood on the floor of the desert and talked of a new star in the Eastern sky.

Then, deep in the heart of the night when everything was asleep, holding off the dawn, something happened. Praise God, it did happen. As Mary felt pain give way to bliss her baby was born and cried. His tiny cry ended in such a crescendo of harmony that the curtain was torn from the gateway of heaven. Humble, awe stricken shepherds blinded by the streaming light heard the angels' promise of peace and good will toward men. The wise men saw heavens light and started their journey toward a star. The spirit of life new born stole inside the minds of the sleepers, out to the hovels of the poor, into the crying souls of the sin sick and threaded like warp into the very woof of humanity.

This gentle God revealing Spirit still brings a new lilt to ones step, new sparkle to the eye. The Christ Spirit still urges men and women to follow a star, find heaven within and somehow like an angel's promise blesses everyone.

That is the Christmas Story. This is your Christmas gift from God.

NOEL

Now as in the days of old, may the story of His birth bring you great comfort and enduring joy.

Merry Christmas...

The Herald foregoes its usual format at Christmas time to bring a basic measure of the Yule season to its readers. That measure is spelled out in the simplicity of hundreds of letters to Santa from the children of Milam County.

And, traditionally, ministers of various Cameron churches set forth the heart of Christmas in their Yuletide sermons.

The letters deal with receiving for the most part; the sermons tell of giving in the truest sense. We believe the two fully develop the story of Christmas. For is it not necessary that someone is to receive if someone is to give? And who could better receive a gift than a child?

There is no Christmas without children. Without the most wondrous birth of a child 1900 years ago, we would have no Christmas today.

The sermons strip away the tinsel and tingle and glitter, leaving the light of real Christmas.

It is in the spirit of Santa letters and Christmas stories that we present the 1958 Herald Christmas edition.

And we extend our sincerest hope that Herald readers everywhere will enjoy a Merry, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

People Race Through Year

To Discover It's Christmas time

Dear editor:

Along about this time of the year, every year, a lot of people pull up short and declare time sure does fly, here it is Christmas again and it seems like only a month or since the last one.

This is because people live too fast. That is, they think they're living too fast, although actually of course everybody lives at the same rate, only instead of living from one hour to the next, or at the most one day to the next, most people try to live in gulps, say twelve gulps to consume the whole year.

Now me, I take things a little easier. You try to consume a whole year too fast and you wind up with indigestion.

Also I notice that some people get to wishing they could skip Christmas, they say it's too strenuous, it's too much trouble, it's too commercial. Generally though when people say Christmas is too commercial, they mean it's not commercial enough for them, it's the other fellow that's profiting by it. Commercialism generally is considered bad only when you're on the wrong end of commerce, when you're spending instead of selling.

This is the reason I have been proposing for years a new plan which I think the government ought to consider. Under the present system, a man never knows whether he's going to come out ahead or behind when his Christmas giving and his Christmas receiving has been totaled up. Here's where the government ought to step in. The government ought to agree to make up the difference between what you spend and what you get. A sort of Yuletide Equalization Bureau. All a man would have to do under my plan would be keep a list of the gifts he gives in one column, a list of what he gets in another, and if the second column is shorter than the first, the government would make up the difference. Of course, if the first column was shorter, and you got more than you gave, the government should forget it. What's Christmas for What's the government for

I don't think this plan will work, but that's no argument for the government's not trying it. If the government tried only things that will work. Santa Claus would sure fail to see a lot of people.

Meanwhile, Christmas is here, whether it's liked or not, although me and you and a lot of other people sort of like it. Consequently, until the government gets its Gift Equalization system working, I will hereby get rid of all my Christmas obligations by saying: Merry Christmas.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

VITAL SERVICE DAY AND NIGHT

As long as any of us can remember... whether it was a sore throat or a serious illness... the family doctor was always there when needed... a good citizen who protected the health of the community.

Like the faithful doctor, TP&L performs a host of day and night services... valuable to our lives, our health, and community well-being. In addition to supplying dependable, constant, low-cost electric service, TP&L works hand in hand with the citizens of the communities it serves... for civic progress.

TP&L employees are solid citizens and home owners... personally interested in every facet of the community... churches, schools, hospitals, civic organizations and chamber of commerce work.

TP&L sponsors community development projects, and is a good taxpayer citizen... more than 25% of its revenues go for taxes to help pay community, state and federal government expenses. And, despite sharply rising costs of operation, this Company has been able to price the cost of electricity low. The average price per kilowatt-hour paid for your TP&L residential electricity today is 43% less than in 1936.

Electricity is the biggest bargain in your family budget.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM

BARON de BASTROP

First Friend of "The Father of Texas"

Every Texas school child knows the inspiring story of Moses and Stephen F. Austin, but few remember that these two champions of freedom had a friend whose wisdom, skill and diplomacy made their great colonization project possible. This first friend of the Austins was Felipe Enrique Neri, Baron de Bastrop. Historians disagree as to who he was... Prussian soldier of fortune, exiled French nobleman, American adventurer or the Dutch Baron he said he was... but, as a Spanish colonizer in Louisiana and Texas, from 1795 until his death in 1827, the Baron de Bastrop was a man of influence and importance.

In December of 1820, Moses Austin had despaired of obtaining the Spanish Governor's approval of his plan to establish an Anglo-American colony in Texas. Through the intervention of the Baron, the Governor reconsidered. After Moses Austin's death, failure again confronted his son, Stephen F. Austin. But again the advice and active assistance of de Bastrop cleared the way. Stephen F. Austin was able to prove the quality of his leadership and to become the "Father of Texas." Throughout a life of public service the Baron de Bastrop championed the rights of the settlers who were to build a great republic and a great state.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland, "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close co-operation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

Peace on earth, Good will to men

As it came to the world upon a midnight clear, so long ago, the message of the First Christmas again rings out in our hearts in all its transcendent joy and glory... reaffirming our faith, rekindling our hopes. In the manner of the Wise Men, may we bring to the observance of this Day our own most precious gifts... devotion to Peace... and Good Will toward all mankind.
